

“Students were transfixed ... deeply moved to leave behind the distractions of texting and social media, to think beyond their own context, their own little world. They considered the plight of others, experienced radical empathy, and were inspired to become the start of a movement of lasting change.”

Kristen Kieckhaefer
Teacher, Hartford
Union High School

“... truly impacted ... learned that love shouldn’t hurt, and someone around me may be in pain ... ”

- Lexi Wolf, student, UW-LaCrosse.